Berkeley County hosts public meeting for Cane Bay community

On Tuesday, May 8, 2018 at Cane Bay Middle School, 6 p.m.- 8 p.m.

BERKELEY COUNTY, S.C.- (Tuesday, May 8, 2018) Berkeley County will host a community meeting on Tuesday, May 8, 2018 at Cane Bay Middle School, from 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

The public will have an opportunity to hear from Berkeley County leaders. Attendees will hear updates on road projects in the area, including US 176, Nexton Parkway and more.

Following presentations, the public will have an opportunity to provide feedback and ask questions.

This meeting is part of an ongoing effort to ensure local community insight remains a priority in the County.

“Berkeley County leaders continue to host these meetings in communities around the County to ensure quality of life continues to be at the forefront of Berkeley County leaders’ efforts,” said Berkeley County Supervisor Bill Peagler. “I’m especially thrilled with the work that’s happening in Cane Bay and excited to share the recent achievements and plans for the area.”
