BERKELEY COUNTY HOSTS PUBLIC MEETING FOR HENRY E. BROWN BOULEVARD

Phase 2 of project, from Liberty Hall Road to US-52

MONCKS CORNER, S.C.- (Wednesday, October 18, 2017) Berkeley County will host a public meeting at Mevers School of Excellence, located at 7750 Henry E. Brown Jr. Blvd. Goose Creek, on Thursday, November 2, from 6 - 8 p.m. The meeting aims to answer questions and provide information on the improvements planned for Henry Brown Boulevard, from Liberty Hall Road to Old Mt. Holly Road/ US-52.

This meeting will have a drop-in type format with displays for viewing, and citizens will have the opportunity to provide written comments. The design is preliminary and input will be evaluated and incorporated into the project where feasible.

This project consists of improvements to approximately 4 miles of Henry E. Brown Jr. Boulevard. The improvements involve constructing dedicated turn lanes at key intersections, the addition of a shared use path for bicyclists and pedestrians, and installation of raised landscaped medians.

The project is currently in the pre-construction/preliminary design phase. Utility coordination with the City of Goose Creek and Berkeley County is underway. Preliminary plans have been completed and reviewed by SCDOT and City of Goose Creek

Berkeley County personnel and consultant representatives will be available to answer questions and discuss the project with interested citizens on an individual basis.

Project information can be found on the County website:
